

Divine Muzia

MSW, RSW

Assessment Clinician, OSP

Divine is a therapist with a deep understanding of the mental health challenges faced by individuals from all walks of life, including high-performing professionals, athletes, corporate executives, entrepreneurs, and those navigating personal growth and wellness.

Divine holds a BA in Child and Youth Care from Toronto Metropolitan University and a Master's in Social Work from the University of Toronto. Her clinical expertise has been shaped by experiences at known institutions in Toronto, including Toronto Western Hospital, the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH), and various Family Health Teams.

She is passionate about helping clients overcome mental obstacles, reach new heights, and develop healthier relationships with themselves. She guides professionals in demanding careers to find balance, helps athletes perform well on and off the field, and supports individuals in improving their well-being without losing sight of their goals.

Outside of her clinical practice, Divine enjoys traveling, exploring new adventures, and embracing experiences that contribute to her personal and professional growth.
